SIERRA MADRE RED CROSS WORKERS ORGANIZE TO GO AFTER THAT $5,000

Plans for Sierra Madre's big drive to raise the local allotment of $5,000 for the Red Cross war relief fund were practically completed at a meeting held last night in the Red Cross chapter rooms. Organization of the local forces has been completed as follows:

Executive Committee—C. W. Jones, chairman, E. W. Camp, L. L. Krebs, F. D. R. Moote, J. D. Mackerras, campaign manager.

Treasurer, F. H. Hartman. Cashier and book keeper, Lieut. C. W. Forman.

Auditor, C. E. Hoover.

Team Captains: No. 1- E. C. Carhart; No. 2- Miss T. H. Graham; No. 3- Arthur Johnson Jr.; No. 4- Mrs. Mary D. Goodfellow; No. 5- Alex Stone.

Supper for Workers

Active operations will be under way by Monday night. By that time each team captain will have enlisted a team of five to work together at soliciting subscriptions.

Officers, captains and team members will meet at the Red Cross headquarters Monday evening at 7 o'clock for supper and council of strategy. At that time the whole territory will be divided up so that arrangements will be made for the personal solicitation of every individual and family.

To raise $5,000 in Sierra Madre will require some big gifts and a lot of small ones. It is absolutely essential that no one be missed and that everyone do all possible to help this great cause. The campaign will be so well organized and so energetically carried on that no one will have the excuse of not being invited to help.

Form of Donations

Attention is called to the fact that there are three ways in which gifts may be made acceptably. Those who wished to subscribe for liberty bonds can turn a bond over to the Red Cross fund as was done by the Board of Trade. Those who can do so may give cash outright. Those for whom it would be more convenient may make the donation in four monthly payments falling on the first of July, August, September and October. Some may be able to do more in this way than if the whole amount were required at once.

Putting It Over

Two slogans which have appeared in different parts of the country seem to fit the situation admirably.

If you don't come across the Germans will. That was intended for the Liberty Bond campaign, but the wonderful work of the Red Cross in sending effective fighters back to the front makes it just as applicable now.

The other slogan is: "Give until it hurts and then give until it doesn't hurt."

In view of the sacrifices that the men who go to the front and their families make, that is not too much to ask of those who cannot go and fight.

Many people seem to think that the proposed war relief fund is a very large one. To anyone who has studied the work and its necessities, it appears only the moderate sum necessary to do the work properly.

Take as an example, the city of Toronto in Canada. Toronto, while a large city, does not compare in wealth with many cities of the United States, and still after nearly three years of war, the city of Toronto started to raise, as its share of the Red Cross fund for the year 1917, the sum of $2,500,000, and after a campaign running a month, this one city alone raised $3,260,000.

Montreal, not to be outdone by Toronto, followed with the campaign and in a short space of time, raised considerably over $4,000,000.

The American people do not seem to realize yet that we are in a very big world war. Ex-Governor Hiram Johnson stated, "Unfortunately, we are not yet war conscious."

They do not seem to realize that the winning of the war is dependent on the energy and

LIST YOUR LIBERTY LOAN SUBSCRIPTIONS

Help to Compile Complete List Of the Sierra Madre Subscribers

Sierra Madre people had subscribed about $12,000 in Liberty Loan bonds, according to the estimates of Cashier Nuetzel of the First National Bank Yesterday. This does not include subscriptions made by Sierra Madre people through agencies in other cities or directly with the Federal Reserve bank.

For statistical purposes it is greatly desired that a list of all local subscribers be compiled. Some Sierra Madre people have made their subscriptions through the concerns by which they are employed or through out of town banking connections. All such loan subscribers are requested to list their names and the amounts with Secretary Hawks of the Board of Trade, Postmaster Morgridge or Cashier Nuetzel, so that the list can be made a matter of record here.

Some women have given their men. Some men have given their lives. What are YOU giving? We have got to build a wall of granite or prepare to suffer the fate of Belgium and northern France and Poland and Serbia and Rumania. The first masonry in that defensive wall, aside from questions of military service should be assistance to the Red Cross. This is no time for any man to say "Well, so many calls have been made on my pocketbook that I don't feel as if I could afford to give to the Red Cross. This is an inopportune call." As a matter of fact the whole war is inopportune. It is inopportune that millions of brave men are dying or suffering that we may remain a nation, not a German province. It is inopportune that millions of women and children are miserable and hopeless and starving. Also a German governor general of occupied America would be rather inopportune. We have profited perforce from the sacrifices and sufferings of our brave allies and we have become the marketplace of the world. Now there is need for action with all our resources of men and money and sympathy—and the last is scarcely less important than the first and the second. What are we going to do? It is up to the American people! Subscriptions are wanted from everybody, rich, well-to-do and poor. This war fund to which Sierra Madre people are asked to contribute $5000 must be a national undertaking in the largest and finest sense of the word. The crisis in this war is at hand and the United States must play her part or prepare for such humiliation as free people never endured, not even in poor Belgium.

YOU will have an opportunity in the next week to make a contribution to this great cause. It may be your aid will go directly to the relief of your own or of your neighbor's boy in active service of our country. Would that be worth anything to you? Can you not make some sacrifice to match what thousands of others are doing? Will you help the speed displayed by the American people.

They have yet to learn how to make proper sacrifices and to do their share.

Volunteers and Conscription

Chester Rowell at the conference in San Francisco stated:

"There are two ways in which we raise our armies to fight our battles. One is the volunteer plan, the other conscription. We are using both plans and it is right that we should. There are two ways necessary to raise the funds to carry on the war. One is by conscription and the other is volunteer and it is good that we use both. The conscription is by taxation and the volunteer method in the contributions to the Red Cross.

It is necessary that the large sums both under the conscription plan and the volunteer plan, shall come from those that have much. The burden will be distributed unequally but justly."

Mr. Charles C. Moore, president of the Panama Pacific International Exposition, in his talk at the Red Cross Conference at San Francisco, stated:

"This war is to do away with autocracy and to preserve democracy. Now it seems to me that it is necessary for us to purge ourselves of hypocrisy and to give freely and from the heart."

WISCONSIN PICNIC IN SYCAMORE GROVE

Coffee will be served on the grounds. All Wisconsin people and their friends are cordially invited to be present and renew old acquaintances.

REV. WILSON EXPECTED TO PREACH SUNDAY

New Pastor of Congregational Church Arrives This Evening

Members of the Congregational Church are expecting their new pastor, Rev. C. C. Wilson, and his family, to arrive this afternoon. They will arrive in Pasadena over the Salt Lake route.

Several members of the congregation will meet the Wilsons and escort them to their temporary residence in the bungalow of Miss McDaniel on Adams St. They will reside there while preparing the Congregational parsonage for occupancy.

Unless he is disabled by the trip across the desert in the weather prevailing this week, it is expected that Rev. Mr. Wilson will occupy his new pulpit on Sunday. At any rate he is sure of a warm welcome in more than one way, for his parishioners have been awaiting his coming with the utmost eagerness.

REMOVAL OF WEEDS TO BE COMPELLED

Trustees Start Machinery to Remove Great Fire Hazard

Enforcement of the ordinance against inflammable and noxious weeds on street parkings and private property was ordered at last night's meeting of the city trustees, on motion of Trustee Evans. City Attorney Montgomery was directed to prepare the necessary resolution and notices. The work must be done by private property owners or it will be done by the city and the expense charged up to the property owner's expense.

Messrs. Ham and Topping presented the request of the Board of Trade that the funds not used for equipping of the Home Guard be turned over to the band fund. The matter was referred to the city attorney to determine in what way such an appropriation could be made legally under the provision of the law for advertising and music.

E. D. Topping asked permission to erect two ornamental light standards in front of his property on West Central, the city to furnish the electricity. The matter was referred to the street committee.

The request of Robert Mitchell for permission to remove two pepper trees from his parking was granted.

Otis Lockhart requested that a pipe line be laid from the corner of Baldwin and Mira Monte to Mountain Trail Ave., agreeing to furnish the pipe if the city would furnish the labor. The trustees agreed to give him permission to lay the pipe entirely at his own expense, the work to be done under supervision of the water and street superintendents of the city.

CHEMICAL CART GOES TO SMASH

The home of A. N. Carter had a narrow escape from total destruction on Thursday. So did the city's chemical cart. Mrs. Newcomb who is occupying the Carter residence, had gone out of the house for a few moments and on returning found that something had happened to the gasoline stove and the kitchen was apparently filled with fire and smoke. The doors were locked by a spring catch and she had to run around the house to gain entrance at the front. Phoning an alarm, she then turned to the fire which she managed to smother with rugs and bedding.

When the alarm was received at the city hall, Marshal Steinberger hooked the chemical tank cart to the truck and started for the fire. As he rounded the corner in front of the bank the wheels were caught in the Pacific Electric tracks and collapsed. The chemical apparatus was left behind and when the scene of the fire was reached Mrs. Newcomb had the fire out.

The regular social meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational Church will be held at the home of Mrs. C. C. Nourse, 496 W. Central Avenue, Tuesday afternoon, June 19th. Mrs. Newman Essick, Mrs. C. W. Jones and Mrs. F. D. R. Moote, will assist Mrs. Nourse as hostesses. All ladies of the congregation are invited.

The Missionary Society was entertained by Mrs. A. N. Adams on Tuesday. There was a fair attendance and some excellent music was furnished by the hostess.

CREST DRIVE OF 101 MILES IS A WONDER

It has long been the editor's contention that it is not necessary to go to northern California to find mountain scenery on a big scale. Our Sierra Madre mountains offer abundant possibilities and on to the east the San Bernardino mountains are built on a little larger scale. In company with more than 100 members of the Southern California Editorial Assn., the writer has spent three days in the wonderland that has been opened up by the great 101 Mile Drive over "The Rim of the World."

Starting from San Bernardino Saturday noon, the party was taken by the Mountain Auto Stage Company's passenger trucks over the whole circuit. For genial hosts, picturesque equipment, comfort and beautiful settings the resorts along that wonderful road which has recently been taken over as a state highway cannot be surpassed.

The editors were guests of the San Bernardino Mountain Crest Assn., and the party was piloted by Dr. J. N. Baylis, president, and Max Green, secretary. The precision and smoothness with which the whole excursion was carried out spoke volumes for their careful planning and management.

The fleet of fifteen White trucks of the stage company have solved the transportation problem. They have been driven an aggregate of one million miles, and the only accident was caused by a truck skidding on the ice at the opening last season. Saddle and pack animals have almost disappeared.

The party made its first stop at Arrowhead Springs hotel for a lunch that was a regular banquet. The great variety of springs, steam caves and other attractions were thoroughly explored before the party proceeded up the Waterman Canyon road to the crest. The writer is perfectly well aware that readers of this paper do not care a whoop about the doings of that bunch of editors. But a great many of them want real information about the outing possibilities of the region.

The purpose of the following paragraphs is to make short and accurate description of the various resorts and the efforts which are being constantly made to take into the wilds the comforts and luxuries of urban life.

Thousand Pines

This place which might as accurately been named "Million Pines" is 12 1-2 miles due north from San Bernardino in the district known from pioneer days as Seely Flat. It is beautifully located on a pine covered knoll with vistas of wooded slopes in all directions and off to the north the desert far below.

Thousand Pines camp consists of a large central dining hall, office, reading room and dance hall. Provision is also made for boxball, billiards and pool, tennis, croquet etc. Guest quarters are provided in cabins scattered among the trees.

Little Mojave and Houston Creek afford good fishing and a direct road leads to Little Bear Lake 8 miles distant. A barbecue grill in the middle of the parade ground is the scene of frequent weiner bakes and camp fire frolics. The camp has a capacity of 150 people and during

Mrs. George B. Morgridge and daughter Elizabeth spent the week end at the home of the formers' uncle, O. A. Peterson of San Bernardino while the head of the family represented the News on the editorial excursion over the "Rim of the World" drive.

Mr. Paul Isenberg entertained with a delightful dinner party last Sunday in honor of the home coming of Mrs. Isenberg and little daughter, Dorathia Jane. The event was also on his birthday anniversary. The guests included Mrs. and Miss Kopke of Honolulu, Mr. and Mrs. William Porter of Altadena, Miss Williams of Los Angeles and Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Mackerras.

Delightful indeed was the tea given by Mrs. H. I. Hawxhurst last Saturday at the Red Cross rooms complimentary to the ladies of the "Mikado" cast and also those who had charge of the production. The large room was a bower of cherry blossoms and Japanese lanterns were hung over the tables. Dressed in Japanese costumes, Dorothy Adams, Harriet Sperry and Elsie Webster assisted Mrs. Hawxhurst.

Mr. Norval McGregor has returned to Sierra Madre for a vacation and is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Hedderly.

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Tribble, Miss Verna Tribble, Mrs. W. P. Caley motored to Long Beach last Sunday and spent the day.

Mrs. Duncan McGregor left Thursday morning for different points in Canada, expecting to remain three months or more.

The Misses Katherine Anderson, Thompson and Eunice Brown of Los Angeles spent the week end at Orchard Camp, making the trip to Mt. Wilson on Sunday.

SIERRA MADRE GARDENS DELIGHT TO VISITORS

Mrs. Samuel Stork entertained the Garden Club of Los Angeles on Tuesday with a delightful luncheon and a tour of some of the fine gardens in Sierra Madre. Luncheon was served under the trees in the garden and a delightful visit was made by the guests to the studio of Miss Ella Shepard Bush. In the afternoon the party visited the gardens of Mrs. E. W. Camp, Miss Graham, Mrs. L. L. Krebs, Mrs. E. W. Newton, Mrs. Lawless and the Villa home of Mrs. F. J. Hart. The visitors were most enthusiastic over the natural beauties of Sierra Madre and the remarkable and varied garden development found at the places visited.

CHILDREN'S DAY

Children's Day at the Congregational Church was notable for the graduation from the primary department of a class of thirteen. They were: Ralph Anderson, Bernhard Bodine, Hope Gale, Robert Heisner, Charles Hull, Archibald Jackson, Robert Mackerras, Sarah Schwartz, Preston Schwartz, Joy Scott, Danson Tarr, Muriel Tarr. Their teacher, Mrs. Heisner, may well be proud of the work of the class, examined by Superintendent Essick, who presented each with a Bible from the school after Miss Larjar, Superintendent of the primary department had given each a certificate.

Special songs by the school and a song by Ruth and Marion Wills gave pleasure to all. A new class from the Cradle Roll of the church is expected in the primary Department next Sunday.

CIVIC LEAGUE PLANS UNDER DISCUSSION

Preliminary Meeting of New Organization Held Monday

Forty or more citizens gathered at the Woman's Club House on Monday evening to consider the formal organization of the Sierra Madre Civic League. Draft of constitution and by-laws was presented by a previously appointed committee and general plans were thoroughly discussed.

General uplift and improvement in all matters of public interest are the aims of the league members. It was made plain that no single subject is the motive in organization and that the plan is to have a permanent body to devise ways and means for the promotion of meritorious measures and projects of all kinds. It will probably be the policy of the League to take an active stand on many matters in which other organizations like the Board of Trade cannot in the nature of things take sides.

Another meeting will be held toward the latter part of the month, to which all citizens are invited. It was distinctly stated that there is no desire on the part of anyone to make the League exclusive. Announcement of the next meeting date is promised for next week.

There's a dime in it for you if you will just find out by reading the Troy Laundry ad.

REPEAT "MIKADO" AT MARYLAND

Local Performers to Appear at Pasadena Hotel Thursday Evening

"The Mikado" performance which will be given at the Maryland Hotel in Pasadena on Thursday evening June 21st in aid of the Red Cross work will be rendered by the entire ensemble that gave the opera here at the Woman's Club House recently.

Elaborate preparations are in progress to insure a very large audience on that night. A large list of patronesses has been appointed from Sierra Madre as follows: Mmes. Krebs, Fagge, Krafft, Sadler, Montgomery, Flather, R. H. Mackerras, Lawless, Camp, Vogel, Mason, Walker, Harriet Wright, Maughlin, Sperry, Cornell, Welsher, Dietz and Miss A. H. Binford. From Pasadena 25 prominent ladies will also act in conjunction with the above from Sierra Madre.

It is earnestly requested that persons who own automobiles will volunteer the use of the same to convey the performers to and from Pasadena on the date of the performance. Any arrangements that auto owners can make with the members of the cast will be greatly appreciated.

FIRST USED FOR FIGHTING

The Bulldog was first used for fighting, but was found unsatisfactory owing to its lack of agility and formation of mouth, great difficulty being experienced in separating the combatants. So to rectify this the wise men introduced a cross. They mated the Bulldog to the various Terriers they then had at their disposal. The result was a sort of nondescript or half-bred 'un, but by continual crossing and recrossing a specimen was produced that could both give and take punishment. This was called the Staffordshire Bull and Terrier. It contained the grit of the Bulldog and the alertness of the terrier, and as a fighting dog it was the very thing required. In those days color did not count, as a dog's value was judged by its grit, and a good one was not a bad color—brindle, red, fawn, and black, with white intermixed, was mostly in evidence. There are still several specimens to be seen to-day in Walsall and outlying mining districts. There seems to be a big demand for them to-day as pals, and right good ones they make, too.—Dogs Weekly.

the season had a total of 1800 people upon its books, exclusive of casual dining room patrons
Skyland Heights

About the same distance from San Bernardino as the Thousand Pines is the Skyland Heights resort. It is on the crest of the ridge and was for many years the only post office in the mountain range. It has cabins and tent accommodations for 100 people. There is a store and delicatessen for the accommodation of housekeeping guests or it entertains them on the American plan in the dining room. The outlook both to north and south is worth the trip. On clear days Mt. Whitney is visible in the north and the south pictures the valley from San Bernardino to the sea.

Squirrel Inn

This is not a resort but no description of these mountains is complete without mention of this well known private club. It was inspired many years ago by Frank Stockton's Squirrel Inn. It affords delightful refuge for members in a region of charm and rest. It has done much to induce mountain travel and to popularize the resorts.

Pinecrest

This beautiful spot is an outgrowth of Squirrel Inn and is a child of sentiment. The forest adjoining Squirrel Inn on the north and east was under lease to the lumber mill people and to save it from the ax and saw Dr. J. N. Baylis, a well known physician, bought it. Its development into Pinecrest resort was an after consideration and came about through the unceasing importunities of people who had not access to the private club which was commencing to render the hills popular. Its evolution has gone on for eight years in a remarkably unique and consistent fashion. It has come to embody the dreams of Dr. and Mrs. Baylis who have designed all of the buildings with their distinctive architecture and decorative features. No tree has ever been cut which would make it less a forest, no cabin has been built which would detract from its restful, primitive aspects. A comfortable hotel has grown here, but it is in the forest and of it. Each year sees buildings added but they are all forest pictures.

Pinecrest can entertain 400 people in comfort with housekeeping equipment or regular hotel luxury. During the season of 1916 more than 5000 guests were entertained, to say nothing of casual visitors to the grounds and diningroom who failed to register. There is a complete grocery store, and among the amusement features is a fine pool.

Little Bear Lake

Little Bear Lake is a new aspirant for public favor and while the well stocked lake makes direct appeal to fishermen, the natural charms of the surroundings attract many visitors. In the nearby forest are numerous camp sites which are available for private lease and the construction of cabins under the forest service regulations.

The fishing and boating concessionaires maintain a fleet of 41 rowboats and two power boats. The camp at the lakeside has cabin and tent accommodations for 75 people and maintain first class dining room service. Extensive improvements are under way for the coming season. The resorts so far described are those near the west end of the Crest Drive, best reached by way of the Waterman canyon road. Next week the eastern section will be covered, including Big Bear Lake.

WOMEN HEAR TALK FROM WAR NURSE

Miss Timberlake Tells of Her Experiences at the Front

The meeting of the Woman's Club last Monday was well attended. The club was fortunate in having Miss Pearl Virginia Timberlake speak to them on a subject of vital interest to everyone. Miss Timberlake has served as a Red Cross nurse at the front. She told of actual experiences which were heart rending and brought tears to the eyes of many, and she also told of the cheerfulness and wonderful bravery of the wounded soldier. She said that their one hope was to get well quickly so as to be able to go to the front again.

Miss Timberlake said that the need of surgical supplies was so great the dressings had to be washed and used over again on account of the supplies being limited and that it was the duty of the women of our country to see that plenty of these supplies are sent to the front for our own boys as well as for the allies.

As a delightful interlude, Mrs. W. T. Summers, who possesses a rich contralto voice, sang several selections, accompanied on the piano by Miss Frances Webster. Mrs. Ethel Taylor De Vaughn gave several readings, one of which was, "The Bachelor's Romance" by James Whitcomb Riley.

Red Cross

Mr. J. D. Mackerras told briefly of the campaign for the American Red Cross war relief, and asked that everyone give generously to aid this work. After the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," refreshments were served at the small tables in the auditorium. The decorations were effectively carried out in the national colors. Many members of the Red Cross were present engaged in their usual pastime, that of sewing for the Red Cross.

Newspaper Talk

The program for June 25th, will be a talk on the inside work of newspaper life by Mrs. Madge Moore Parmenter, wife of Mr. George Parmenter, art editor of the Los Angeles Examiner. Mrs. Parmenter is a former newspaper woman and writer of short stories, and will tell of many humorous incidents in connection with her personal work. She has interviewed many notables such as General Booth, Madame Nordica, Patti and many others too numerous to mention.

Mrs. Vora Maull and Mrs. George Ferris will have charge of the refreshments.

MARY PICKFORD

ON THE PROGRAM

The picture for Saturday night will be another of Mary Pickford, who will be seen in one of her greatest characterizations "Rags." Always inimitable, always human, lovable and impulsive, she makes the character of "Rags" a living, breathing incarnation of all that is sweet and tender.
